July 12 - Riverbank Banjo Band

The Riverbank Banjo Band has been making music in the Hudson Valley since 1979. We are a member-run, non-profit organization that has been donating our profits to local charities since our inception. Our all-volunteer group currently has over thirty active members and features banjos and a variety of other instruments. Our main repertoire features old time standards and favorites from the early 20th century. In addition, we enjoy mixing in a little country, blues and gospel on occasion.

July 19 - The Hot Rod Band

HOTROD is a four-piece band that's been rocking the Hudson Valley since 1996. Covering songs from the 50's to the 90's, they perform an ever-expanding repertoire for audiences of all ages. From the roots of Doo-Wop to the psychedelic 60's, from the guitar rock of the 70's to the sounds of the 80's, HOTROD shares music that awakens our synapses and makes audiences feel alive. In shows throughout the Hudson Valley, HOTROD's goal is to make the music of generations come alive. Past and present join in a live celebration not to be missed.
